

4.02 A KING IS CHOSEN

1 SAMUEL 8-10

Long ago in the land of Israel, there were judges that ruled the land. Samuel was one of the good judges. He loved God and obeyed Him. Samuel fought against Israel's enemies and there was peace in the land. As Samuel grew old, his oldest sons became judges. But they were only interested in money. They were not good judges. The leaders of Israel had a meeting and decided they didn't want judges anymore. They told Samuel they wanted a king instead.

Samuel went to the Lord God for guidance. God told him. "The people are not against you; they are against Me. Give them what they want. But warn them about the way a king will rule over them."

Samuel went to the people. He told them about how a king rule. "A king will make some of your sons be soldiers in the army. He will make some of them work in the fields. He will make your daughters cook for him. He will take the best of your crops and the best of your animals. You will be his slaves. Then you will beg the Lord to help you, but He will not."

The people didn't listen. "We still want a king," they said. "We want to be like all the other nations." Samuel told the Lord what they said. The Lord replied, "Give them a king."

In the land of Israel, there was a man named Kish. His donkeys were lost, and he sent his son, Saul, to find them. A servant went with him. Saul and his servant walked and walked but did not find the donkeys. Then, Saul's servant said, "Let's go into town. There is a man of God there—a prophet—who can tell us where to find the donkeys."

Saul and his servant went into town. As they entered the town, there was Samuel! The Lord said to Samuel, "This is the man. Anoint him ruler over my people."

Saul came up to Samuel and said, "Do you know where the prophet is?" Samuel said, "I am the prophet. Today, come eat with me. Do not worry about the donkeys. They have been found."

The next morning, Samuel sent the servant ahead and spoke alone with Saul. "I have a message for you from God," he said. "As you are traveling toward home, you will see some prophets playing musical instruments. They will be telling messages from God. The Spirit of God will come upon you and you will have messages from God also. You will be a changed person. God will be with you."

Soon Samuel called all the people of Israel together. He told them, "This is what the Lord says, 'I brought you out of Egypt. I saved you from all the kingdoms that fought against you.' But now, you have rejected God and want a king. Gather all your families together. I have an announcement."

When Saul was brought out, there was no one as tall as he was. Samuel said, "Now see the man that God has chosen. There is no one like him among all the people." All the people shouted and said, "Long live the king!" Samuel then anointed him as King of Israel. That is how Saul became the first king of Israel.

Today, God is our spiritual King. He knows what is right. He leads His people with wisdom, love, and truth. We must remember, God's way is always best, and we should trust Him, listen to His Word, and obey Him above all and not reject Him to copy what other people are doing.

Key Verse 1 Samuel 8:7 "They have rejected Me as their king."

The story tells us that the Israelites asked for a king because they wanted to be like the other nations. God allowed Saul to become their first earthly king, but He wanted His people to remember that He was still their true and highest King. Earthly kings and leaders have important responsibilities, and we should show respect for those in authority. But only God is our perfect spiritual King. He rules with complete wisdom, goodness, love, and truth. We must remember, God's way is always best, and we should trust Him, listen to His Word, and obey Him above all and not reject Him to copy what other people are doing.
